CHMS Associate Awarded the AENC FUEL Young Professionals Scholarship

Capitol Hill Management Services (CHMS) is honored to recognize Brandi Gerew, winner of the 2019 Association Executives of North Carolina (AENC) FUEL Young Professionals Scholarship. Awarded at the AENC Fall Conference, the scholarship is awarded to help advance an individual in association management by assisting with costs associated with either an AENC event or professional development.

The launch of FUEL (Fostering Unity among Emerging Leaders) was conceived as a forum to bring young AENC members together to strengthen their relationship and involvement with AENC. FUEL also gives opportunities to tomorrow's leaders, giving them a chance to interact both professional and socially with their peers and potential mentors.

"As a member of our CHMS family for nearly four years, Brandi has always championed any task or duty given to her. Her work ethic, drive, and commitment to succeed have always impressed me," said John Graziano, Jr., CHMS President. "There is no one more deserving of this honor."
