CHMS to Provide Full Association Management Services to the National Association of Independent Review Organizations

Capitol Hill Management Services (CHMS), with offices in Albany, New York, and Raleigh, North Carolina, is pleased to announce that it has been selected to provide full service association management services to the National Association of Independent Review Organizations (NAIRO).

Founded in 2001, NAIRO serves to protect the integrity of the independent medial peer review processes. The organization works to develop guidelines for solving common industry problems, promote standards for these reviews, educate consumers about their rights for claims appeal, and help to define the role of IROs in the evolving healthcare landscape.

CHMS will be providing full-service administrative and operational support to NAIRO and will work with the association's leadership to achieve the highest level of efficiency and success for the organization.

"NAIRO has assisted policy makers at both the federal and state level with position papers and analysis of issues and helped its member organizations demonstrate the value of URAC accreditation and their processes for independent review," said John A. Graziano, Jr., CHMS President. "We are pleased to work with the association's Executive Committee and volunteers in ensuring a successful future."
