CHMS to Provide Association Management Services to the National Black Association for Speech-Language and Hearing

Capitol Hill Management Services (CHMS), with offices in Albany, New York, and Raleigh, North Carolina, is pleased to announce that it has been selected to provide association management services to the National Black Association for Speech-Language and Hearing (NBASLH). “We are pleased to have a proven national leader in association management to help NBASLH advance our association’s administrative and membership services, grow and support our membership while increasing awareness of our organization across the nation and beyond,” said Board Chair Kia Noelle Johnson, Ph.D., CCC-SLP. “Through its committed members and outstanding programs, the National Black Association for Speech-Language and Hearing represents, promotes and protects the communications concerns of black communication science and disorders professionals and those they faithfully serve,” said John A. Graziano, Jr., President of Capitol Hill Management Services. “We are pleased to work with the association’s dedicated Board of Directors and volunteers in ensuring a successful future for this professional organization that plays an important role in the health and growth of those with communications disorders.” The new NBASLH National Office operation begins on July 30, 2021.
