CHMS to Provide Full Association Management Services to the Society of Communications Technology Consultants International, Inc.

Capitol Hill Management Services Continues to Grow

Capitol Hill Management Services (CHMS) is pleased to announce that it has been selected to provide full service association management services to the Society of Communications Technology Consultants International, Inc. (SCTC).

The Society of Communications Technology Consultants International offers information and communications technology answers. Its professional network of experienced, vendor independent, vetted consultants has extensive knowledge and expertise to guide organizations to optimal solutions. The SCTC has been a recognized force in the information and communications technology industry since 1976. This non-profit society provides a robust network of consultant resources and opportunities for collaboration, a forum for professional development, mentoring of new consultants, and access to a vendor advisory council that offers product service, and channel information for its consultants and clients.

CHMS will be providing full-service administrative and operational support to SCTC and working with the association's Executive Committee and Board of Directors to achieve the highest level of efficiency and success for the organization.

"Non-profit organizations and associations are facing increasing demands to provide high quality services to those they serve. CHMS is uniquely qualified to provide SCTC with the operational support it needs to deliver the programs and services that are most important to its members," said CHMS President John Graziano, Jr. "CHMS is proud to welcome SCTC to our growing portfolio of international clients and looks forward to working with SCTC's leadership to ensure another 40 years of success," Graziano added.
